

Nutri-Serve Food Service Worker

Are you looking to work for a few hours during the day? Want to have weekends off? The food service worker prepares and serves students attractive and nutritious meals in a friendly, efficient, and clean atmosphere and maintains related paperwork accurately and completely. Must be a TEAM player to accomplish the result, whether in preparation, service, or clean-up.

All Food Service Workers must meet the following requirements:

- Must be able to pass the state-required background check and fingerprinting to work in NJ schools.
- Previous experience working in food service is preferred but not required.
- Cashier experience preferred but not required.

Key knowledge, skills and abilities of this job include the following:

- Excellent customer service skills and a positive approach
- Patience and the ability to maintain a caring attitude towards children
- Ability to follow oral and written instructions
- Ability to interact successfully with customers and Nutri-Serve employees
- Knowledge of food preparation, a plus
- Must be able to lift 30 pounds